

WayOut

WayOut - Integrated Exit Programme for Prisons and Probation

Responding to the European Union's security concerns on radicalisation leading to violent extremism, WayOut aims to build a common framework to evaluate Exit Programmes - along with the development of an innovative and integrated programme based on proven effectiveness approaches - while improving and facilitating the implementation of Exit Programmes across the Criminal Justice system, namely in prison and probation settings

Common framework to systematically evaluate Exit Programmes

Integrated programme based on approaches with proven effectiveness

Training course on Exit Strategies to prison and probation professionals

Improved and facilitated implementation of Exit Programmes

Increased awareness and knowledge amongst Criminal Justice professionals

Increased capacity of prison staff to deal with radicalised inmates (or at risk of radicalisation)

Heightened adoption of Exit Programmes by policymakers, judges and prosecutors

Increased networking, information collection and communication processes (community-prison-probation-police-intelligence services)
